

Trauma: Orthopedic

1. Immobilize the joint above and below the injury. If indicated (no distal pulses or sensation) realign the fracture by applying gentle axial traction. Apply traction device for femur fracture.
2. Observe for compartment syndrome
3. When giving report to the Emergency department start by saying " This is a trauma system entry " then state the reasons.